

SDGs Issues in Vietnam and research cooperation by Kyushu University

- DATE 10:30AM – 12:00PM, November 10th, 2022
- VENUE Kyushu University Ito Campus, I2CNER Hall
- LANGUAGE English
- REGISTRATION Free to participate, no need to registration
- OUTLINES

Kyushu University has concluded agreements with 15 universities and research institutes in Vietnam and has conducted many exchanges with them. In this program, the Vietnamese Consulate General in Fukuoka will give a lecture on Vietnam and Vietnam's SDGs issues. Also Associate Professor Ton and Assistant Professor Cuong, both researchers from Vietnam at Kyushu University, will give a lecture on research being conducted at Kyushu University. In addition, a Vietnamese song performance by Vietnamese students is also planned. This event will be enjoyed by many people, including those who are interested in Vietnam and Kyushu University's research.

■ TIME SCHEDULE

Time	Speaker	Title
10:30-10:35	Opening remarks
10:35-10:45	Vietnamese Song Performance
10:50-11:05	The Vietnamese Consulate General in Fukuoka	Vietnamese SDGs issues
11:05-11:25	Dr. Ta TON	Fish Schooling and Human Behavior in Disasters and Transportation
11:25-11:45	Dr. Pham Hung CUONG	Opportunities, challenges and future directions in renewable energy development in Vietnam
11:45-11:55	Q & A
11:55-12:00	Closing remarks

■ Main Speakers

Consulate General of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam
in Fukuoka

Dr. Ta TON
KYUSHU UNIVERSITY

Dr. Pham Hung CUONG
KYUSHU UNIVERSITY

※ There's a possibility that schedule may be modified.