

AsiaWeek 2024

~Q-AOS Social Cluster SDGs Special Seminar~

Global South and the Humanities and Social Sciences

Nov. 7 Thu
10:00-11:30

How can humanities and social sciences be rooted in Asia's socio-cultural context?

Traditional research often focuses on WEIRD (Western, Educated, Industrialized, Rich, Democratic) societies, making it difficult to replicate results elsewhere. In the face of these challenges, researchers will discuss interdisciplinary approaches to developing new theories and methodologies in the humanities and social sciences, with a focus on Asia and the Global South.

Zoom event

2024 Nov 7 10:00 to 11:30

Pre-registration is required

Program

10:00 Greetings

Prof. Takuya KIMURA, Head of Social Cluster

10:05 Explanation of Purpose

A. Prof. Kun QIAN, Deputy Head of Social Cluster

10:20 Presentations by each module leader

Prof. Takuya KIMURA, Prof. Atsuo SATO, A.Prof. Yuichiro FUJIOKA, A. Prof. Toru OGA, A. Prof. Ashir Ahmed

11:10 Panel Discussion

"Global South and the Humanities and Social sciences" Discussant: Wakako SATOMURA Asst. Prof.

Register here → <https://asiaweek.kyushu-u.ac.jp/en>