2024 Medicine x Design
Seminar

2024 11.8 (Fri.)
Japanese and English

16:30 - 18:00
Zoom Webinar

(JST, UTC +9:00)

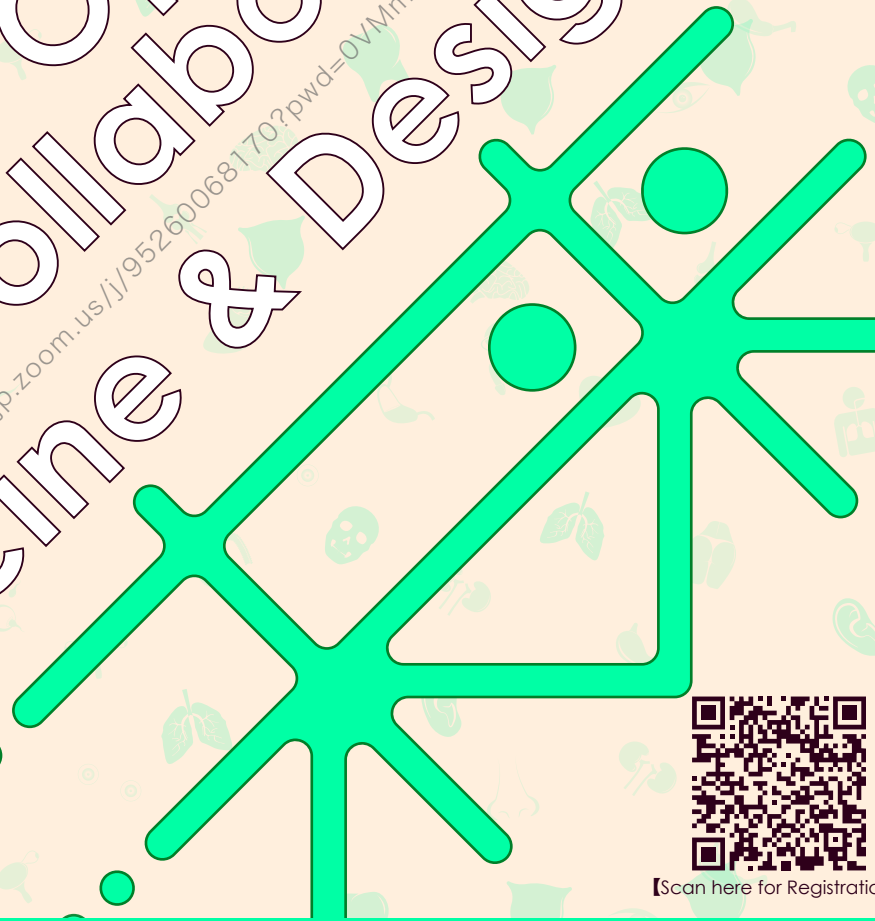

This seminar introduces advanced approaches to collaboration in design (art and technology) and the human resource development program implemented at Kyushu University to foster collaboration between the two fields.

This year, we have invited a medical illustration specialist from Estonia to give a lecture towards the difficulties of usage and problems of illustrations using in the medical field.

We look forward to the participation of medical professionals, students, and researchers.
